PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

My passion for IT and technology led me to study electrical and electronics engineering with minor in Data Science and Machine Learning. I have a flexible work habit that allow me to work on different tasks at any given time. I am punctual and I hate procrastination. When encountered with a challenging problem or bugs, I find solace in a green park with my laptop. My prowess in information retrieval and hardworking makes me the spear head in any group projects or assignments. I like to watch the news in my free time. I am very friendly, and I bring in positive energy wherever I find myself.
